

sebastian winne – press info

Sebastian studied drums at the conservatory in Cologne and graduated in 2007. Currently he is mainly working with jazz-crossover trio "Three Fall".

"Three Fall", with their unconventional line-up, consisting of drums, bass-clarinet and trombone, and their own mixture of different musical influences, are among the most independent and established formations of the young german jazz-generation. Since 2011, "Three Fall" has published 3 Albums on the german label "ACT", and is touring worldwide.

Their music was recorded and played by all the major german radio stations, as well as broadcasted by WDR Television, Arte and 3Sat. Chad Smith, the drummer of "Red Hot Chili Peppers", praised their concept album "On a Walkabout - celebrating Red Hot Chili Peppers", for which they re-arranged songs of the band, as "best RHCP covers I've heard done yet!".

Since 2017 he is the drummer in the weekly TV-Show "Neo Magazin Royale" with Jan Böhmermann, which is broadcasted on ZDF Neo.

Sebastian also plays as a sideman for changing formations as well as working as a workshop lecturer. He has taught Masterclasses at the ArtEZ Conservatory of Arnhem, the Music Academy Qatar and the Xinghai Conservatory in Guangzhou.
